

Church News

This weekend we welcome Fr. Cosmas Osei-Amponsah to St. Mary's for the summer. Fr. Cos returns from Ghana to say Mass for the faithful people of Prudence Island. It is a sure sign of summer when Mass is celebrated on the island.

We congratulate Fr. Zinno and all the people of Our Lady of Mount Carmel for the bishop renewing Fr. Zinno as pastor for six more years.

Our best wishes and prayers go with Fr. Dean Perri as he leaves Bristol to go to Rome for three years to study canon law.

We welcome to Bristol Fr. Michael Sisco. He will be assisting at O.L.M.C. and serving the community at Roger Williams University.

We congratulate Fr. Jeremy J. Rodrigues of Bristol whom was ordained this Saturday. May the Lord bless you, and many through you!

Deacon Tony will not be available to the parish until the fall. With his work and ministry to the hospital he is kept very busy.

Next Friday, your aging and overweight pastor will attempt to walk the parade route. Your shouts of encouragement truly lift my spirits – thank you!

Fr. John Wydeven has been celebrating Mass on Friday mornings and will be helping on Saturday evenings. He is the chaplain at the Veterans Hospital.

There is an open registration for anyone wishing to join the parish today after the 10:00 Mass in the auditorium.

We have been urged to move our religious education classes from Monday nights to Sunday nights. This would be for students in grades 7 through 10. Many parents are pressuring us to make the change; please let us know what you think. It would be the same times but on Sunday instead of Monday.

Our St. Vincent de Paul Society is looking for help in replenishing the food pantry. We are in need of cereal, soup, canned chili, ravioli, canned meats, spaghetti sauce, canned fruits and vegetables, meals in cans, macaroni and cheese and any other non-perishables. Demand has been great, so any help that is provided is appreciated.
